

Rice, Laube lead All-Wamac hoops

Written by Metro Sports Report
Wednesday, 24 February 2016 22:03 -

Chloe Rice and Mia Laube, a pair of talented sophomores who have led the Marion Indians to the Class 4A state basketball tournament, have been named unanimous selections on the Wamac Conference West Division all-star team.

Marion sophomore Caitlyn Smith was named to the second team. Freshman Maddie Knapp and junior Isabella Sade received honorable mention.

Corby Laube of Marion was named the West Division Coach of the Year.

WAMAC WEST DIVISION

First Team

* Mia Laube, Marion; * Chloe Rice, Marion; * Allie Wooldridge, Center Point-Urbana; * Arika Wooldridge, Center Point-Urbana; * Alyssa Wiebel, Benton Community; Maci Griffith, Vinton-Shellsburg; Madie Bacon, South Tama; Olivia Brecht, Center Point-Urbana.

* unanimous

Second Team

Caitlyn Smith, Marion; Tristin Ludwig, Independence; Erin Navara, Clear Creek Amana; Tieranny Keahna, South Tama; Leah Van Weelden, Benton; Julie Hollensbe, Williamsburg; LaMia Sisk, Center Point-Urbana; Sarah Morkel, Independence.

Honorable Mention

Rice, Laube lead All-Wamac hoops

Written by Metro Sports Report
Wednesday, 24 February 2016 22:03 -

Marion - Maddie Knapp, Isabella Sade.

Coach of the Year - Corby Laube.