

Sahm will join Gardner-Webb volleyball

Written by Metro Sports Report

Tuesday, 20 May 2014 09:54 - Last Updated Tuesday, 20 May 2014 09:56

Marion High School junior Amanda Sahm has accepted a scholarship offer to play college volleyball at Gardner-Webb University.

Gardner-Webb is an NCAA Division I college and a member of the Big South Conference. It is located in Boiling Springs, N.C.

Sahm was named IGCA Honorable Mention All-State in 2012 and is a two-time first team All-Wamac performer. She also participates in basketball and soccer at Marion High School and was named second team All-Wamac in basketball this season.