WATERLOO - Bria Lenten belted two home runs for the Washington Warriors Thursday night in a 5-4 loss to Waterloo West in the second game of a Mississippi Valley Conference doubleheader in Waterloo.

Waterloo West took the opener, 1-0, on a one-hitter by Jaclyn Spencer. Spencer hit a solo home run for the only score in the game.

Payton Bruner pitched a strong game for Washington in the opener but was the hard-luck loser.

Haley Jones hit a three-run homer and drove in all five runs in the second game for Waterloo West (16-12).

Washington's records fell to 17-10 overall and 11-9 in the MVC.
