

Kelley leads Warriors at Voss Invy

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 16 January 2016 18:13 -

Cameron Kelley of Washington captured the 500 freestyle and tied for first in the 200 freestyle Saturday at the Jim Voss Invitational swimming meet at Washington High School.

Kelley claimed the 500 free in 4:48.05 and tied Nathan Spencer of Bettendorf in the 200 free in 1:46.14.

Nick Saulnier won the 100 back for Washington in 52.94 seconds.

Bettendorf won the meet with 328.5 points. Washington finished fourth out of six teams with 239.5 points.

The Warriors got second-place finishes from Saulnier in the 200 IM, Kaleb Donels in the 100 backstroke, the 200 medley relay and the 200 freestyle relay.

JIM VOSS INVITATIONAL

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Bettendorf 328.5, 2. Waukesha South 287, 3. West Des Moines Valley 286, 4. Washington 239.5, 5. Des Moines Lincoln 130, 6. Cedar Falls 20.

WINNERS

200 medley relay - Bettendorf 1:39.67

200 free - (tie) Cameron Kelley, Washington & Nathan Spencer, Bettendorf, 1:46.14

Kelley leads Warriors at Voss Invy

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 16 January 2016 18:13 -

200 IM - Caleb Aman, Bettendorf, 1:54.00 (meet record)

50 free - Carl Skoog, WDM Valley, 22.49

100 fly - Caleb Aman, Bettendorf, 53.70

100 free - Nathan Spencer, Bettendorf, 49.04

500 free - Cameron Kelley, Washington, 4:48.05

200 free relay - West Des Moines Valley 1:29.26

100 back - Nick Saulnier, Washington, 52.94

100 breast - Ryan Schade, Bettendorf, 1:01.43

400 free relay - Bettendorf 3:16.28