IOWA CITY - The Xavier Saints split their two games at the Iowa City West softball tournament Friday at the University of Iowa fields.

Xavier defeated Davenport North, 9-1, and lost to Waukee, 3-1.

Erin Drahozal went 3-for-4 with four RBIs in the victory over Davenport North. Steph Wehr was 2-for-3 with two RBIs. Ellie Malecek was the winning pitcher.

Maria Steffen was charged with the loss against Waukee, which is ranked sixth in Class 5A. Drahozal hit a double and scored the only run for Xavier.
