The Iowa Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association has released its final dual meet poll for Class 3A and two Metro teams are in the top 11.

Prairie (26-4) is ranked No. 8 and Linn-Mar (27-6) is No. 11.

Iowa City West (33-2) is ranked No. 1, followed by Waverly-Shell Rock (25-4) and Bettendorf (15-5).

Participants for the substate dual meet tournaments will be decided at Saturday's district meets. Prairie and Linn-Mar are the top two ranked teams in the district at Epworth. Kennedy and Xavier also are at Epworth.

The other three Metro teams -- Jefferson, Washington and Marion -- are at Waverly.

Besides determining teams for the dual meet tournament series, the districts also will determine individuals for next week's traditional state meet.

There are no Metro teams ranked in the traditional state tournament top 10. Iowa City West, Waverly-Shell Rock and Bettendorf are again the top three ranked teams.

There are 16 Metro wrestlers ranked in the top 10 in their respective weights. The highest ranked are Prairie's Zach Witte, who is No. 3 at 145, and Linn-Mar 215-pounder A.J. Garcia, No. 3 at 215. Prairie and Linn-Mar also have the most ranked wrestlers in the Metro. Linn-Mar has five, Prairie four.

Linn-Mar's ranked wrestlers are Garcia, Alijah Jeffery (103, No. 8), Joel Northrup (112, No. 5), Ross Lembeck (135, No. 7) and Mark Atwater (189, No. 6).
