Kiah Stokes has won the quadruple crown.

The McDonald's All-American from Linn-Mar topped the Metro in scoring, rebounding, blocked shots and field goal percentage for the 2010-11 regular season.

Not only that, the 6-foot-3 did it by wide margins in each category.

Stokes averaged 25.0 points, 15.1 rebounds, 5.5 blocks and shot 71.8 percent from the field. The runners-up in those columns were Courtney Strait of Kennedy in scoring (15.3), Tia Dawson of Washington in rebounding (10.6), Dawson in blocked shots (3.8) and Alex Saxen of Xavier in field goal percentage (51.1).
