The Linn-Mar Lions grabbed an early lead against the top-ranked baseball team in Iowa on Saturday, but it didn't last.

The Ankeny Hawks responded and spanked the Lions, 10-3, in the championship game of the Linn-Mar tournament.

A two-run triple by Mitch Stickney in the second inning gave Linn-Mar its early 3-1 advantage, but the Ankeny bats proved to be too much for the Lions as the visitors collected 12 hits.

Stickney had a hunch he'd get a good pitch to hit.

"I have faced him (Keaton McKinney) before," said Stickney. "I went up there looking for a first-pitch fastball and that was exactly what I got and I jumped on it."

Ankeny's pitchers allowed seven walks and hit three batters, but they limited Linn-Mar to only two hits. Brandt Ollinger got the other safety with a leadoff double in the second inning.

"We got plenty of people on base," said Linn-Mar Coach Chad Lechner. "We just couldn't come up with any key hits when we needed them. We just need to keep improving."

First team all-stater Tanner Buenting led the Ankeny attack with three hits and scored three runs. The big blow for the Hawks was a three-run homer by Matt Johnson in the fourth inning.

Linn-Mar defeated Muscatine, 9-5, in the first round to reach the finals. Ankeny (10-1) snuck past Fort Madison, 9-8, in the opening round.

Austin Stroschein and Ollinger collected three hits in the first game for Linn-Mar. Stickney added two hits and drove in three runs.

Devin Bettmann went the distance for the Lions in Game 1 to get the victory.

Linn-Mar (7-8) must prepare for six conference games this coming week.
