

Jenn Jenks breaks 4 swim records

Written by Jim Ecker

Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:14 - Last Updated Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:48

It's a good thing Jennifer Jenks is not afraid of heights, because the Linn-Mar freshman had to make a steep climb at the Jefferson High School pool Tuesday night.

Jenks broke long-standing pool records in the 100 freestyle and 200 freestyle as Linn-Mar dunked the J-Hawks, 133-50, in a Mississippi Valley Conference meet.

She also broke the Linn-Mar school records in both events.

As soon as the meet was over, Jefferson officials leaned a metal ladder against the wall and invited Jenks to climb up and physically remove the slabs that displayed the old pool marks from the record board.

"It was a little slippery up there," she said cheerfully after safely climbing down.

Jenks swam the 100 freestyle in 53.03 seconds, breaking the old pool mark of 53.61 set by Erin Carew of Prairie in 1991. She swam the 200 free in 1:55.77, snapping the old pool mark of 1:56.02 set by Jennifer Maehl of Prairie in 1990.

The Linn-Mar school records fell as well, including the 200 mark of 1:59.97 set by her sister Stephanie a year ago and the 100 mark of 53.27 established by Mary Beth Russell in 1996.

Jenn Jenks breaks 4 swim records

Written by Jim Ecker

Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:14 - Last Updated Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:48

In one night, Jennifer Jenks broke records that were set in 1990, 1991 and 1996 and moved to the top of the leader board in her own home despite being a little weary from long plane rides Monday.

"I'm pretty happy," she said after her record-setting performance. "I came back from London yesterday, so I'm a little tired. I'm glad it all worked out how it did."

Jenks was in London with her family to watch Stephanie compete in the World Triathlon Championships this past Thursday. Stephanie Jenks also had a good meet Tuesday with victories in the 500 freestyle, 200 medley relay and 400 freestyle relay.

Jennifer Jenks now ranks first in the state in the 50 freestyle, first in the 100 freestyle and second in the 200 freestyle. "I guess it is kind of a surprise," she said of her fast start.

Jenks won the 100 freestyle by 6.54 seconds and captured the 200 freestyle by 13.33 seconds with a pair of impressive outings.

"Pool records usually aren't broken in the middle of September," noted Linn-Mar Coach Chad Derlein. "For her, it's an amazing feat. And her doing it now is even cooler."

"She's very determined," said Derlein. "She doesn't hold back. She sets her goals really high and she accomplishes them."

Jenn Jenks breaks 4 swim records

Written by Jim Ecker

Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:14 - Last Updated Tuesday, 17 September 2013 21:48

Jenn Jenks breaks 4 swim records
Jenn Jenks, a senior at the University of Oregon, broke four swim records at the 2013 NCAA Championships in Indianapolis. She set new records in the 100-yard freestyle (1:00.72), 200-yard freestyle (2:00.72), 400-yard freestyle (4:00.72), and 800-yard freestyle (8:00.72). Jenks is a member of the Oregon State Swim Team and is a member of the USA Swimming Hall of Fame. She is also a member of the USA Swimming National Team. Jenks is a member of the USA Swimming National Team and is a member of the USA Swimming Hall of Fame. She is also a member of the USA Swimming National Team.