

RoughRiders fall short in Omaha

Written by Metro Sports Report

Saturday, 11 January 2014 23:43 - Last Updated Saturday, 11 January 2014 23:44

---

OMAHA, Neb. - The Cedar Rapids RoughRiders were tied with the best team in the USHL in the third period Saturday night before falling short against Omaha, 5-3, before 3,657 fans at Ralston Arena.

Andrew Oglevie scored on a power play with 5:19 elapsed in the third period to pull the RoughRiders into a 3-3 tie, but Matt Nelson scored two minutes later to give Omaha the lead for good at 4-3.

Omaha added an empty-net goal with 56 seconds left for the final margin.

Corey Petrash and Oglevie scored the first two goals for Cedar Rapids. Oglevie scored both of his goals on power plays after Omaha had taken a 3-1 lead.

Danny Tirone saved 24 of 28 shots for the RoughRiders.

The outcome left Cedar Rapids with a 17-13-1 record for 35 points. Omaha stands at 25-6-4 for 54 points, the best mark in the USHL.

Cedar Rapids	1	1	1	- 3
Omaha	1	2	2	- 5

OMA - Jake Randolph (Gage Hough, Tyler Vesel)

CR - Corey Petrash (Nick Master)

OMA - Nash Worden (Louie Rowe, Austin Pooley)

OMA - Tyler Hynes (Brian Williams, Jake Henderson)

CR - Andrew Oglevie (power play) (Frederik Tiffels, Alec Marsh)

CR - Andrew Oglevie (power play) (Clark Kuster, Frederik Tiffels)

RoughRiders fall short in Omaha

Written by Metro Sports Report

Saturday, 11 January 2014 23:43 - Last Updated Saturday, 11 January 2014 23:44

---

OMA - Matt Nelson (power play) (Jimmy Schuldt, Jakob Forsbacka-Karlsson)

OMA - Tyler Vesel (empty net) (unassisted)