Dani Franklin has become the seventh member of the 1,000 Point Club for the Cedar Rapids Washington girls basketball program during the five-player era.

Franklin passed the 1,000-point mark last Saturday against Marshalltown and raised her total to 1,038 Tuesday night against Dubuque Wahlert.

Franklin is now sixth on the school scoring list behind Stacy Frese (1,477), Marsha Frese (1,393), Katelin Oney (1,314), Brenda Frese (1,271) and Alyssa Green (1,110). The seventh member of the club is Kayla Pirtle (1,033).

Franklin, a senior, will play college basketball at Valparaiso University. She is averaging 22.2 points for the 10th-ranked Warriors (13-3) and leads all Class 5A players in scoring.
