Marion senior Amanda Sahm is the winner of the Metro Spotlight Award for high school girls this week, the Metro Sports Report announced Sunday.

Sahm, 5-foot-7, is one of the top volleyball players in the state and a key member of the Marion High School team that will face Charles City in the opening round of the Class 4A state tournament at the U.S. Cellular Center on Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Sahm has accepted a scholarship to play Division I college volleyball at Gardner-Webb University in North Carolina.

Sahm has been a "do-it-all" player for Coach Roxanne Paulsen and the Indians during her career. She ranks eighth in the state in Class 4A with 729 assists and has played all 99 sets for Marion.

She has collected 198 digs, 101 kills, 50 aces and 23 blocks. She has been successful on 372 of 399 serves for a 93.2 efficiency rating and is one of the leaders for Marion.

Sahm has helped the Indians compile a 33-7 record so far and has been named to the all-Wamac Conference squad.
