Washington earned its share of the Mississippi Valley Conference Mississippi Division girls soccer championship Tuesday with a 1-0 win over Dubuque Hempstead at Kingston Stadium.

Maddi Hines scored the only goal of the game for the Warriors (13-3, 11-2 MVC).

Washington finished in a first-place tie with Kennedy for the division title. The Warriors close out the regular season Friday at Davenport Central.

Hempstead (7-9, 5-8) finished its regular season. The Mustangs' next game is June 1 against Linn-Mar in the Class 3A regional tournament.
