Adam McDermott of Xavier edged Jordan Bohannon of Linn-Mar for the scoring title in Metro boys basketball this season.

McDermott, a 6-foot-3 senior, averaged 17.9 points for the Saints. Bohannon, a 6-foot junior, was just a tick behind at 17.8 points for the Lions.

Bohannon nipped McDermott in 3-pointers, 77 to 75.

Cole Murdock of Kennedy was the Metro assists king with 117. Tom Scroggs of Cedar Valley Christian finished with the top rebounding average at 7.8 per game. Brendon Manning of Kennedy led the Metro's big schools in rebounding at 7.5 per game.

Shelby Hembera of Cedar Valley Christian, who missed the second half of the season with an ankle injury, led all Metro girls in scoring and rebounding by a healthy margin at 30.3 points and 13.5 rebounds per game.

Stephanie Botkin of Kennedy led the Metro big schools in scoring at 15.5 points. Amanda Ollinger of Linn-Mar was the top rebounder at 8.3 per game.

Chloe Rice of Marion nipped Olivia Usher of Prairie for most assists, 77-73. Olivia Montague of Linn-Mar made the most 3-pointers with 50.

Here are the final Metro stats, compiled by MSR contributor Mark Dukes:
