DES MOINES -- Eight Metro girls soccer players, including two each from Xavier, Washington and Kennedy, have been named first team all-state by the Iowa High School Soccer Coaches Association.

Kayla Armstrong and Annie Dale, who helped lead Xavier to its sixth straight girls soccer title, were named to the Class 2A first team.

Marion's Kristin Kramer, who scored 58 goals in two seasons playing for the Indians, also was a 2A selection.

Washington's Morgan Bjornsen and Ashley Piper were chosen for the Class 3A team. They helped the Warriors to the first state girls soccer tournament appearance in school history.

Kennedy's Shauna Happel and Katie Helmlinger also were selected to the Class 3A first team. The Cougars also qualified for the state tournament.

Linn-Mar's Madisen Garman also was a first team selection in Class 3A.

Maggie Bruckman of Jefferson, the Metro Player of the Year, and Linn-Mar's Kali Hubler were second team choices on the Class 3A team.
