WALFORD - Fairfax continued its dream season Sunday by sweeping a doubleheader from the Norway Bandits in Walford.

Fairfax won both games by a single run, taking the opener 1-0 and prevailing 7-6 in the nightcap in eight innings.

Fairfax reached the halfway point of the Iowa Valley League season with a 9-1 record, good for a two-game lead over Red Top.

Austin Czerwiec tossed a five-hit shutout for Fairfax in the 1-0 victory in the first game for his fifth victory of the season. Walker Breard had an RBI double in the first inning for the only run in the well-played game, driving in Cody Williams.

Jordan Hanlon pitched a four-hitter for Norway. JT Sole had two hits for the Bandits.

The second game was tied, 5-5, after seven innings. Norway took a 6-5 lead in the top of the eighth, but Fairfax responded with two runs in the bottom of the eighth for the victory.

Jacob Henry ignited the two-run rally for Fairfax with a single and scored on a triple by Stephen Jensen. Adam Stolley delivered the game-winning hit with a line single to left.

Cody Bell picked up the victory for Fairfax in Game 2 with two innings of relief. He also had three hits in the ballgame and scored two runs. Alex Hayden had two hits for Fairfax.

Mitch Walser collected a pair of doubles for Norway.
