

Mustangs spike 2 foes in KC

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 31 August 2018 22:39 -

KANSAS City, Mo. - The Mount Mercy women's volleyball team picked up a pair of victories at the Avila Tournament in Kansas City on Friday.

The Mustangs rolled by Southwestern College, 25-18, 25-19, 25-19, in their first match and clipped Presentation College, 25-13, 24-16, 25-15, 25-21 in their second contest.

Kayla Daggett collected 74 assists in the two matches, including 41 against Presentation.

Maddie Bell led a balanced attack at the net with 24 kills. Becca Thomson had 23 kills and Alyssa Weldon finished with 22. Weldon also contributed 27 digs in two matches. Lauren Stopko had 43 digs.

Mount Mercy (8-2) will play two more matches in the tournament on Saturday.