

Mustangs spike 2 foes in tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 02 February 2019 07:37 -

ELGIN, Ill. - The Mount Mercy men's volleyball team won both of its matches at the Judson University Tournament Friday.

The Mustangs took care of Lindenwood University-Belleville, 3-1, with set scores of 25-21, 22-25, 25-19, 25-17.

Mount Mercy knocked off Lawrence Tech, 3-1, with set scores of 28-30, 25-13, 25-21, 25-17.

Ben Steffen collected 28 kills for the Mustangs Friday, with 18 kills against Lawrence Tech and 10 kills against Lindenwood. He also had six blocks against Lindenwood.

Andrew Colantone dished out 85 assists in the two matches, with 49 against Lawrence Tech and 36 against Lindenwood. He had four blocks in the victory over Lindenwood.

Strahil Svilenski had 11 kills and six blocks against Lindenwood, then had seven more blocks against Lawrence Tech. Evan Gaskill contributed nine kills against Lindenwood, then had eight kills and 11 digs against Lawrence Tech.

Mitchell Wannahwilai had 25 digs in the two matches. Nikola Stoimenov had 12 kills against Lawrence Tech.

The Mustangs (5-4) have two more matches Saturday in the tournament.