

OKLAHOMA CITY - The Mount Mercy baseball team split a pair of tight games in extra innings Sunday at Jim Wade Stadium in Oklahoma City.

Chili Moseley collected a double and a home run as the Mustangs edged Cumberland, 4-3, in eight innings in their first game.

The Mustangs were denied by Southern Nazarene, 4-3, in nine innings in their second contest.

Tanner Lohaus and Brady Donohue enjoyed strong outings on the mound for Mount Mercy in the first game. Lohaus and Donohue both pitched four innings, with Donohue getting the win in relief.

Kobi Candaroma went 2-for-4 for the Mustangs in the first game.

Candaroma had two more hits in the second game against Southern Nazarene. Austin Hilpipre went 2-for-3 and scored twice.

The split left Mount Mercy with a 1-3 record for the 2019 campaign.
