The Kirkwood softball needed to sweep the DMACC Bears Wednesday in order to pull into a tie for first place in the ICCAC conference standings.

Instead, the second-ranked Bears swept the fifth-ranked Eagles and now the league race is essentially over.

DMACC swept the twinbill, 4-1 and 7-4, at Kirkwood and now leads the conference standings by four games with eight games to go.

DMACC is 19-1 in the league. Kirkwood has dropped into a tie for second place with NIACC at 15-5.

The DMACC Bears are 36-5 overall. Kirkwood is 36-13.

Kirkwood trailed, 4-0, heading into the bottom of the seventh inning of the opener. The Eagles scored one run and loaded the bases, but the game ended with a strikeout.

Shelby Hulsebus had two hits for Kirkwood in Game 1. Erin Hocker (18-7) allowed two earned runs and took the loss.
