

Kevin Kastl scored three straight goals in the second half Wednesday night to help the Mount Mercy men's soccer team blank St. Ambrose, 4-0, in a non-conference match at the Plaster Athletic Complex.

Jose Leite gave the Mustangs a 1-0 lead near the end of the first half with an assist from Jonathan Scholes.

Kastl, a senior from Germany, owned the second half. He scored at the 51:35 mark with an assist from Rafgael Passanha, scored again at the 62:11 mark with another assist from Passanha, and finished his special night with an unassisted goal at the 82:31 mark.

Dane Lee had a quiet night in goal for Mount Mercy and did not have to make a single save in the 4-0 shutout.

The Mustangs squared their record at 2-2. St. Ambrose fell to 1-2.
