DES MOINES -- Jeremy Morgan scored 26 points, Dondre Alexander added 14 and Iowa City West routed Sioux City East, 67-52, in the Class 4A championship game of the state boys basketball tournament Saturday night at Wells Fargo Arena.

Iowa City West, with four underclassmen in the starting lineup, finished the season with a perfect 26-0 record.

Sioux City East (21-4) was led by 7-foot-1 senior center Adam Woodbury, a University of Iowa recruit who scored 16 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

Iowa City West took control of the game with an 8-0 run midway through the first quarter. The Trojans led 20-9 after the first quarter, 39-23 at halftime and 52-33 after three quarters.

West, which was seeded second, defeated Waukee, Linn-Mar and East by margins of 22, 20 and 15 points en route to the title.
