

24 teams set for Corridor Classic hoops

Written by Metro Sports Report
Wednesday, 23 May 2012 23:57 -

The Corridor Classic Summer Basketball Tournament will be held in Cedar Rapids on June 16-17 with 24 high school boys basketball teams from Iowa competing.

Games will be played at the Kennedy, Jefferson and Xavier gyms during the weekend.

There are nine teams from the Mississippi Valley Conference, seven teams from the CIML, four teams from the Mississippi Athletic Conference and four teams from the Wamac Conference in the event.

There are eight teams in each pool.

Pool A features Ankeny, Benton Community, North Scott, Xavier, Jefferson, Des Moines Hoover, Iowa City High and Williamsburg.

Pool B features Linn-Mar, Ottumwa, Des Moines Roosevelt, Cedar Rapids Washington, Southeast Polk, Vinton-Shellsburg, Muscatine and Kennedy.

Pool C features Iowa City West, Burlington, Solon, Urbandale, Bettendorf, Prairie, Hempstead and Johnston.

The games will begin on Saturday, June 16 at 10 a.m. The final games are scheduled to begin on Sunday, June 17 at 2 p.m.