IOWA CITY - Seventh-ranked Kennedy knocked off No. 4 Dubuque Hempstead in pool play, but the Cougars couldn't get past No. 2 Iowa City High in the semifinals of the Mississippi Valley Conference volleyball tournament Saturday at Iowa City West.

Top-ranked Iowa City West knocked off City High in straight sets to win the championship.

Kennedy went through pool play with a 3-0 record, beating Jefferson (21-11, 21-13), Hempstead (21-15, 21-16) and Cedar Falls (21-12, 21-16). The Cougars beat Xavier, 25-18, 25-13, in the quarterfinals, but were beaten in straight sets by City High, 25-15, 25-23.

Xavier went 2-1 in pool play to reach the championship bracket. The Saints beat Washington (21-13, 17-21, 15-8), and Waterloo West, but lost to Iowa City West.

Washington and Linn-Mar both were 0-3 in pool play, but both won two matches in the consolation bracket.

Prairie was 1-2 in pool play with a win over Waterloo East. The Hawks were beaten by Washington in the consolation bracket.

Jefferson lost all four of its matches, going 0-3 in pool play and losing to Washington in the consolation bracket.
