Kennedy's Allie Hutcheson and Alexis Rogers were selected to the Mississippi Division first team, and Xavier's Kelly Biermann to the Valley Division first team of the Mississippi Valley Conference volleyball all-conference teams.

Biermann, a senior outside hitter, was a unanimous selection. She had team-highs for kills (293) and aces (30). She also had 41 blocks.

Hutcheson, a senior, was selected as a setter, even though she led the Cougars with 267 kills. She also had a team-high 735 assists to go along with 173 digs and 51 blocks.

Rogers, a junior middle hitter, had 214 kills and 82 blocks.

Class 4A No. 2 Iowa City High, Class 3A No. 1 Dubuque Wahlert and Kennedy, ranked seventh in 4A, had two players apiece on the Mississippi Division first team. Wahlert senior Amy Ihm, City High sophomore Michaela Nelson and Waterloo West senior Zinka Duric were unanimous first team selections. Duric was named Athlete of the Year.

Class 4A No. 1 Iowa City West, No. 4 Dubuque Hempstead and No. 11 Cedar Falls had two players apiece on the Valley Division first team. West seniors Shelly Stumpff and Anna Pashkova, Hempstead junior Audrey Reeg and Biermann were unanimous first team selections. Stumpff was named Athlete of the Year.

Craig Pitcher of Iowa City High and Kathy Bresnahan of Iowa City West were Coaches of the Year.
