

15 Metro boys make all-state soccer

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 15 June 2015 12:12 -

Fifteen players from Metro boys soccer teams have been named all-state by the Iowa High School Soccer Coaches Association.

Seth Rinderknecht of Cedar Rapids Prairie and Ben Johnson of Linn-Mar were named first team all-state in Class 3A. Gunnar Lenzen of Washington, Nikolas Newcamp of Kennedy, Leroy Enzugusi of Linn-Mar, Jack Ramsey of Linn-Mar and Ryan Walker of Kennedy were named second team all-state in 3A. Alec Balta of Prairie, Mark Schulz of Kennedy and Logan Rinderknecht of Prairie received honorable mention in 3A.

Connor Ramlo of Xavier was named first team all-state in Class 2A. Luke Koechner, Luke Duball and Will Hanigan of Xavier received honorable mention in 2A.

Joey Philipp of Cedar Valley Christian was named first team all-state in Class 1A.

Linn-Mar won the Class 3A state title this year and Xavier claimed the Class 2A crown.