SOLON - Spencer Hunt staked Jefferson to a 2-0 lead with a two-run double in the first inning and the J-Hawks went on to beat the Spartans, 6-2, Wednesday in a non-conference baseball game.

Jefferson (6-15) won for only the second time in its last nine games.

The J-Hawks rapped out 14 hits. Spencer VanScoyoc was 3-for-4, including an RBI double in the fourth inning. Hunt, Marcus Colbert and Layne Sullivan had two hits apiece.

Sullivan was the fourth pitcher for the J-Hawks and worked the final three innings,
