WATERLOO - Spencer Van Scoyoc fired a two-hitter in the opener to snap Jefferson's seven-game losing streak and had three hits in the nightcap as the J-Hawks swept a Mississippi Valley Conference baseball doubleheader from Waterloo West Monday night.

VanScoyoc, a freshman southpaw, walked two and struck out nine in a 2-1 win. The J-Hawks (8-22, 6-16) won the nightcap, 7-2.

Cam Frazier had two hits, including an RBI single in the fifth inning that gave the J-Hawks a 2-0 lead in the opener.

Layne Sullivan had two hits and an RBI in the nightcap. He also was the winning pitcher. Ben Koering picked up a save.

The J-Hawks were aided by six West errors in the nightcap.

West dropped to 6-23, 3-17.
