

J-Hawks strong-arm Warriors on the lanes

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 13 December 2013 22:06

Austin Kluth, Hunter Sturtz and Victor Baccam all shot series in the 460s to power Jefferson past Washington, 3216-2636, Friday in boys bowling at May City Bowl.

Kluth had high game for the J-Hawks with a 267 and also had high series of 469. Sturtz had a 466 and Baccam a 465 series.

Tyler Fowler and Christian Hindt also cleared the 400 barrier for Jefferson.

Kyle Kaness shot a 267 high game for Washington. He also had a 438 series.

WASHINGTON (2636): Zach Nading 169-186=355, Kyle Kaness 267-171=438, Donovan Trimble 182-161=343, Gabe Wedel 113-132=245, Bryan Cline 203-199=402

JEFFERSON (3216): Hunter Sturtz 207-259=466, Victor Baccam 244-221=465, Austin Kluth 202-267=469, Christian Hindt 193-223=416, Tyler Fowler 220-197=417, Noah Tiedtke 205-160=365

Washington 1783+853=2636
Jefferson 2233+983=3216