CEDAR FALLS - Conner Koberg blew away the field with a 2-under-par 70 Friday as the Kennedy Cougars won the Cedar Falls Tiger Invitational at Beaver Hills Country Club.

Koberg defeated J.D. Goodfellow of Iowa City West by six shots in the individual standings and was the only golfer to break par on a windy day in Cedar Falls. Kennedy edged Waukee, 310-312, for the title.

Koberg collected six birdies during his round. He also had four bogeys.

Davis Sutton of Kennedy tied for fourth place with a 78. Brent Larson of Linn-Mar also shot a 78, helping the Lions finish third out of 13 teams.

Jordan Even shot an 80 to help Xavier place sixth in the standings. Blake Seda shot an 81 as Prairie finished seventh.
