

Chung places 4th at district tennis

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 15 May 2015 18:13

IOWA CITY - Jason Chung of Cedar Rapids Jefferson finished fourth at the Class 2A district tennis tournament at the Klotz Tennis Courts at the University of Iowa Friday.

Chung defeated John Dubberke of Davenport West, 6-0, 6-2, in the quarterfinals. Chung lost to David DiLeo of Iowa City West, 6-0, 6-0, in the semifinals and fell to Drew Jaspers of Iowa City High, 5-7, 6-2, 10-3 in the consolation match for third place.

Jiung Jung defeated DiLeo for the singles title. Joe Hoff and Greg Hensley of Iowa City High topped Cole Schneider and Ryan Smith of Iowa City West in the championship match at doubles. The champions and runners-up advance to the state tournament in Cedar Rapids in two weeks.

Iowa City West won the team title and advanced to the substate tournament May 23.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Iowa City West 29, 2. Iowa City High 24, 3. Davenport West 10, 4. Jefferson 7, 5. Muscatine 5, 6. Burlington 0.