

McKiernan has the line in Kennedy loss

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 08 February 2013 21:55 -

IOWA CITY - Troy McKiernan had the ball rolling Friday afternoon, firing games of 170 and 278 for a 448 series in a losing effort for Kennedy against Iowa City High. The Little Hawks won the boys bowling meet, 2796-2771.

McKiernan helped Kennedy to a 39-pin lead after the first round.

But City High fired four 200 games in the Baker round to rally for the win.

Aaron Smith shot a 215 game for Kennedy.

KENNEDY (2771): Seth Nutt 174-182=356, Doug Svoboda 160-149=309, Aaron Smith 215-167=382, Alec White 156-134=290, Kyle Custer 146-182=328, Troy McKiernan 170-278=448

IOWA CITY HIGH (2796): Mike Beaumont 140-190=330, Dan Heick 185-196=381, Keegan Hayslett 158-134=292, Dalton Heick 163-214=377, Eric Kenney 141-178=319, Wes Kirchner 178-199=377

Round 1 - Kennedy 1823, City High 1784
Baker round - City High 1012, Kennedy 948