Kennedy erased an 87-pin deficit with a strong showing in the Baker round to beat Dubuque Senior, 2697-2680, Monday afternoon in girls bowling at Cedar Rapids Bowl.

Zariell Oldfield shot a 222 high game for Kennedy. Amanda Weidemeier shot a 215 and finished with a team-high 406 series for the Cougars.

Kennedy trailed by 87 pins after first-round singles, and still trailed by 58 pins after the third Baker game.

But the Cougars rolled a 215 in the fourth game to take a one-pin lead and finished with a 199 that provided the 17-pin margin.

Senior's Amanda Lanser shot high game and series with a 233 and 419, respectively.
