Kennedy broke out the bats in the opener, then got an outstanding pitching performance in the nightcap and swept Waterloo East, 15-3 and 6-0, Friday in Mississippi Valley Conference baseball at Kennedy.

Kennedy scored eight runs in the third inning to blow open the first game. The Cougars tacked on five more in the fourth inning.

Andrew Johnson was 3-for-3 with a pair of triples. Jared Staton had a pair of doubles and drove in three runs.

Freshman Jackson Behn scattered four hits over six innings in the nightcap to lead the Cougars (13-9, 10-6). Johnson and Staton drove in two runs apiece.
