WATERLOO - The Kennedy Cougars captured the Wahawk Relays for the first time in school history Tuesday in Waterloo.

Willie Rhoads claimed the high jump (6-4), Derek Jacobus took the long jump (20-5) and Famiek Cook won the 200 meter dash (23.36). The Cougars also won the shuttle hurdle relay (59.06).

Kennedy finished first or second in eight events.

The Cougars scored 110 points to nudge Cedar Falls, which placed second in the 14-team meet with 105 points. Washington finished eighth with 43 points.
