

Kennedy-Dowling title game postponed to Monday

Written by Jim Ecker

Thursday, 19 November 2015 17:27 -

The Iowa High School Athletic Association has decided to postpone all of Friday's championship football games in Cedar Falls until Monday, Nov. 23.

The decision was made based upon the National Weather Service forecast and the winter storm warning that has been issued for Friday. Heavy snow has been predicted for the area.

Kennedy was scheduled to play Dowling in the Class 4A finals at 7:06 p.m. Friday at the UNI-Dome. The game is now scheduled for 7:06 p.m. Monday in the Dome.

All of Monday's championship games will follow the same time schedule as originally planned.

Iowa

City Regina will play Western Christian at 11:06 a.m. Monday for the Class

1A title and Spirit Lake will meet Mount Vernon for the Class 2A title at 2:06 p.m.

The welfare of teams traveling home on Friday in conjunction with the safety of fans traveling contributed to the decision to postpone the games, the IHSAA announced.

Tickets sold for Friday's games will be honored Monday.