NEW YORK - Linn-Mar freshman Stephanie Jenks placed fifth in the adidas High School Girls' Dream Mile in New York City Saturday with a clocking of 4 minutes, 44.50 seconds.

Fifteen of the top high school milers in the United States and Canada were invited to compete at Icahn Stadium on Randall's Island.

Wesley Frazier of Raleigh, N.C., won the race in 4:39.17. Hannah Meier of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., placed second in 4:40.48 and Haley Meier of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., was third in 4:42.11.

Jaimie Phelan of Kitchener, Ontario, placed fourth in 4:44.43.

Jenks established herself as the top distance runner in Iowa this year as a freshman. She won the state cross country title, won two events at the Drake Relays and won two more events at the state meet.
