

Jared Printy commits to Western Michigan

Written by Metro Sports Report
Thursday, 24 September 2015 21:31 -

Linn-Mar senior Jared Printy plans to continue his basketball career at Western Michigan University, The Gazette reported on its website Thursday night.

Printy, a 6-foot-5 guard, was offered a scholarship by Western Michigan on Monday and accepted on Thursday.

Printy transferred from Cedar Rapids Washington to Linn-Mar last spring. He averaged 12.2 points and made 51 3-pointers for the Warriors last season.