The Marion Indians won 10 events Monday and ran away with the team championship at the Wamac Conference West Division boys track meet at Thomas Park.

The Indians captured the 4x100, 4x200, 4x400, 4x800 and shuttle hurdle relays with their excellent collections of sprinters and middle distance runners.

Devin LeBeau won the 100, Quinn Cannoy took the 110 hurdles, Isaac Frazier claimed the high jump, Zach Borens won the shot put and Justin Dolley took the discus.

Marion finished with 179 points. Center-Pointer Urbana finished a distant second with 134 points.

Marion won 10 of 18 events.
