Six members of the Marion High School girls basketball team have been honored by the Wamac Conference.

Chloe Rice and Amanda Sahm were first-team selections on the West Division honor squad. Mia Laube and Michalyn Mohr were named to the second team. Jozee Peyton and Caitlyn Smith received honorable mention.

Marion finished 17-6 this season and reached the regional finals of the Class 4A postseason tournament. The Indians were ranked 13th in the final poll.
