IOWA CITY - Ally Disterhoft poured in 32 points Friday night as Iowa City West trimmed Cedar Rapids Prairie, 70-64, in double overtime in a Mississippi Valley Conference girls basketball marathon in Iowa City.

The future Iowa Hawkeye had a fairly quiet first half, but she came alive after intermission to help the Women of Troy improve to 13-3 overall and 8-2 in the league.

Courteney McCrary scored 17 points to lead Prairie (11-6, 7-3). Madison Dellamuth contributed 15 points for the Hawks, Alisa Weiland netted 14 and Olivia Usher had 12.

Prairie made eleven 3-pointers in the ballgame. Weiland hit four triples, Dellamuth made three and Usher made two.

Dani Craig scored 17 points for Iowa City West. Mikaela Morgan had 10 points.

Prairie missed a shot at the end of the fourth quarter that could have won the game. The Hawks had a lead in the first overtime, but Iowa City West tied the score and forced a second extra session.
