

Prairie girls squeak past Linn-Mar

Written by Metro Sports Report

Tuesday, 25 November 2014 21:19 - Last Updated Tuesday, 25 November 2014 21:46

The Prairie girls bowling team overcame a 69 pin first-round deficit to beat Linn-Mar 2,635 to 2,605 Tuesday at Lancer Lanes.

The Prairie Hawks took control in the Baker round, where they led 974 to 875.

Rylee Blood led Prairie with a 426 series. MeKena Diercks had a 400 series for Linn-Mar.

Prairie (2,635): Rylee Blood 200-226=426, Kaitlyn Early 146-188=334, Riley Hansen 171-161-332, Sabrina Keiper 147-140=287, Linsey Grady 144-138=282, Mikayla Hite 125-152=277.

Linn-Mar (2,605): MeKena Diercks 234-166=400, Emma Davis 194-195=349, Kayla Johnson 147-201=348, Doriann Whitlock 137-183=320, Alexis Tschantz 158-155=313, Amber Serpe 131-152=283.

Prairie: 1,661-974=2,635.

Linn-Mar: 1,730-875=2,605.