Washington was held to three hits in each game and dropped a doubleheader to Cedar Falls, 10-0 and 2-0, Monday in Mississippi Valley Conference baseball at Washington.

The Warriors (10-14, 8-10) also committed six errors in the six-inning opener.

Cedar Falls (18-9, 14-8) pushed across a run in the first inning and another in the seventh to win the nightcap. Noah Burdt spun a four-hitter for Washington.

Eric Loeffelholz had a hit in each game for the Warriors.
