

Washington swimmers dunk Hempstead

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 06 October 2015 22:11 -

DUBUQUE - The Washington Warriors used their depth to sink Hempstead, 111-75, in a Mississippi Valley Conference girls swimming meet Tuesday night in Dubuque.

Both teams won six events, but Washington collected 10 second-place finishes to only two for Hempstead.

Logan Eckhardt, Emily Nelson, Jenny Hughes and Alyssa Harris were double-winners for the Warriors. Kaitlyn Nemickas, Jacey Carr and Ellie Bryant also triumphed for Washington.

WASHINGTON 111, HEMPSTEAD 75

200 medley relay - Washington (Kaitlyn Nemickas, Logan Eckhardt, Emily Nelson, Jenny Hughes) 2:00.48

200 free - Maddy Monahan, Hempstead, 2:12.80

200 IM - Megan Schill, Hempstead, 2:20.65

50 free - Rachel Ryan, Hempstead, 26.49

Diving - Jacey Carr, Washington, 189.85

100 fly - Megan Schill, Hempstead, 1:04.50

Washington swimmers dunk Hempstead

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 06 October 2015 22:11 -

100 free - Logan Eckhardt, Washington, 59.77

500 free - Alyssa Harris, Washington, 5:43.32

200 free relay - Hempstead 1:49.86

100 back - Ellie Bryant, Washington, 1:09.44

100 breast - Vanessa Beringer, Hempstead, 1:17.89

400 free relay - Washington (Emily Nelson, Lauren Havertape, Jenny Hughes, Alyssa Harris)
4:01.51