

Warriors finish 2nd in own quad

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 21 August 2012 20:46 -

Dominic Rodriguez shot an even-par 36 to lead Washington to a second-place finish Tuesday in the Warriors' quadrangular boys golf meet at Gardner golf course.

Muscatine won the meet with a 142 total and the Muskies' Tyler Askren was medalist with a 34.

Washington finished with 158. Davenport Central was third at 169 and Waterloo East had a 231.

Matt Strand and Jon Landis each shot 40 for Washington. Evan Jankwietz had a 42.

TEAMS - 1. Muscatine 142, 2. Washington 158, 3. Davenport Central 169, 4. Waterloo East 231

MEDALIST - Tyler Askren (Musc) 34

MUSCATINE (142): Askren 34, Adam Hutton 35, Alex Snyder 36, Ryan Solt 37

WASHINGTON (158): Dominic Rodriguez 36, Matt Strand 40, Jon Landis 40, Evan Jankwietz 42, Austin Bergstrom 43, John Kopec 43, Zach Gothard 44

DAVENPORT CENTRAL (169): Bryce Kearney 41, Jordan Miller 42, Louis Del Vecchio 42, Matt Moran 44

WATERLOO EAST (231): Scott Daringer 48, Riley Hanks 55, Cody Marvets 59, James Williamson 69