AMES - Josh Hughes won three events to lead Washington at the Ames Invitational boys swimming meet Saturday at Ames High School.

Hughes won the 200 and 500 freestyle and also swam on the winning 400 free relay. He also swam a leg on the second-place 200 free relay.

Washington's Jared Thorson won the 50 free and swam the anchor leg on the 400 free relay. He also swam on the 200 free relay and was second in the 100 butterfly.

Nick Saulnier was second in the 100 breaststroke for the Warriors.
