Washington swept the top three places in all but one individual event, and the top two in all three relays and dunked Jefferson, 138-26, Thursday in boys swimming at the Warrior pool.

Josh Hughes was a quadruple winner for the Warriors. He captured the 200 individual medley and 100 free, and swam on the 200 free and 400 free relays.

The Warriors had three triple winners - Ryo Ueno (200 free, 100 back, 400 free relay), Nick Saulnier (50 free, 500 free, 400 free relay) and Jared Thorson (100 breaststroke, 200 medley relay, 200 free relay).

Thorson and John Kopec finished in a dead-heat tie for first in the breaststroke.

Sami Scheetz won the 100 butterfly.
