

Xavier boys bowlers fall short to Wahawks

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 01 February 2013 20:21 -

WATERLOO - Xavier shot one of its best scores of the season, but it wasn't quite enough Friday against Waterloo West. The Wahawks beat the Saints, 3143-3064, in boys bowling at Maple Lanes.

Caleb Miller shot games of 226 and 234 for a 460 that led Xavier. Kyle Elliott shot 225 and 222 for a 447. Brett Young had a 432 series and Zach Klimesh a 226 game.

West led by only four pins after the first round, but posted a 77-pin win in the first Baker round game and pulled away for the win.

XAVIER (3064): Brett Young 219-213=432, Zach Schnoebelen 172-195=367, Zach Klimesh 226-172=398, Kirby Guge 139-132=271, Kyle Elliott 225-222=447, Caleb Miller 226-234=460

WATERLOO WEST (3143): Tim Fratzke 180-183=363, Brandon Schmitz 187-153=345, Adam Jarchow 243-222=465, Michael Greve 245-216=461, Cameron Walker 247-207=454, Nick Payton 158-207=365

Round one - Waterloo West 2108, Xavier 2104
Baker round - Waterloo West 1035, Xavier 960