

Kamin takes CRANDIC golf with 77

Written by Jim Ecker

Wednesday, 23 April 2014 19:36 - Last Updated Wednesday, 23 April 2014 19:54

MJ Kamin is naturally excited about joining the women's golf team at Iowa State next year, but she's not ready to be tugged toward Ames just y et.

Kamin wants to enjoy her final season at Cedar Rapids Washington and take a shot at winning the Class 5A state title in June.

She's off to a good start.

Kamin fired a 5-over-par 77 on a gray, blustery day at Twin Pines Wednesday to win the CRANDIC championship by two strokes over Maddie Bertsch of Xavier.

Kamin takes CRANDIC golf with 77

Written by Jim Ecker

Wednesday, 23 April 2014 19:36 - Last Updated Wednesday, 23 April 2014 19:54

Thirty-three-year-old Kamin took the title with a score of 77, which was a record for her. She finished the tournament with a total score of 215, which was a record for her. Kamin's performance was praised by the tournament organizers, who said she was "one of the best players in the world".