The Xavier girls basketball team used more of its trademark defense Friday night and trimmed Cedar Rapids Prairie, 39-35, in a Mississippi Valley Conference game at Prairie.

The Saints evened the score with Prairie, which posted a seven-point victory over the Saints at Xavier last month.

Caitlynn Daniels led Xavier with 11 points. Lexi Noonan scored 10 points and Kyle Brown had nine.

The Saints, who are ranked No. 6 in Class 4A, raised their record to 12-6 with their fifth straight victory.

Sidney McCrea led Prairie (6-12) with nine points. Sarah Schmitt and Jenna Wagemester netted eight points apiece.
